DEFENDANTS.

CIVIL ACTION NO. 2:13-CV-193 (NGR)
(CONSOLIDATED ACTION)

SUPPLEMENTAL DECLARATION OF J. GERALD HEBERT

Pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §1746, I, J. Gerald Hebert, declare that:

1. I previously submitted a Declaration with accompanying time records and expenses in support of the Veasey-LULAC motion for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.
2. I hereby reaffirm the statements made in that Declaration as true and correct.
3. I am supplementing that original Declaration because, after consultation with Defendants' counsel and further review, I have revised the billing records for the attorneys for Campaign Legal Center as further exercise of reasonable billing judgment. The attached time records reflect those revisions, which include the decision not to charge for time related to motions for admission pro hac vice or motions to withdraw attorneys, as well as for time related to the motion to intervene filed by True the Vote. The attached time records also correct a mathematical error in the summation of attorney Danielle Lang's total hours. Finally, the attached time records reflect the addition of time I spent in preparation for two depositions that were inadvertently excluded or combined with other entries in the prior submission. The attached time records are true and correct, and are the ones that this Court should review in ruling on the pending Veasey-LULAC motion for an award of attorneys' fees and expenses.

4. In addition to these minor revisions to CLC's billing records, I have reviewed CLC's costs and sought to gather available receipts for Campaign Legal Center (CLC) expenses submitted with the original motion. Attached is an updated detailed list of CLC's costs, which removes one entry for trial transcripts that was inadvertently included but pertains to another case. The receipts available to CLC at this time are also attached to this declaration. CLC has also requested bank records for 2014-2016 that may provide additional documentation of its expenses. Those records have not yet arrived but will be submitted to the Court in a subsequent filing.

5. Finally, I am resubmitting a revised Exhibit A to my original Declaration that lists the cases I have worked on over the years. The attached revised Exhibit A lists cases inadvertently omitted from the earlier submitted Exhibit A and corrects a few minor typographical errors.

6. Pursuant to the foregoing, CLC is seeking the following pursuant to Veasey-LULAC Plaintiffs' motion for attorneys' fees and costs: $768,733.14 in attorneys' fees and $111,003.27 in costs.

I declare the foregoing to be true and correct.

Dated: July 15, 2019

What you need to know to travel:

- Don't forget to check in for your flight(s) 24 hours before your trip on southwest.com or your mobile device. This will secure your boarding position on your flights.
- Southwest Airlines does not have assigned seats, so you can choose your seat when you board the plane. You will be assigned a boarding position based on your checkin time. The earlier you check in, within 24 hours of your flight, the earlier you get to board.

Remember to be in the gate area on time and ready to board:

- 30 minutes prior to scheduled departure time: We may begin boarding as early as 30 minutes prior to your flight's scheduled departure time. We encourage all passengers to plan to arrive in the gate area no later than this time.
- 10 minutes prior to scheduled departure time: All passengers must obtain their boarding passes and be in the gate area available for boarding at least 10 minutes prior to your flight's scheduled departure time. If not, Southwest may cancel your reserved space and you will not be eligible for denied boarding compensation.
- If you do not plan to travel on your flight: In accordance with Southwest's No Show Policy, you must notify Southwest at least 10 minutes prior to your flight's scheduled departure if you do not plan to travel on the flight. If not, Southwest will cancel your reservation and all funds will be forfeited.

Air Cost: 565.50

Carryon Items: 1 Bag + small personal item are free. See full details. Checked Items: First and second bags fly free. Weight and size limits apply.

Fare Rule(s): 5262431269348: NONREF/NONTRANSFERABLE/STANDBY REQ UPGRADE TO Y.

Valid only on Southwest Airlines. All travel involving funds from this Confirmation Number must be completed by the expiration date. Unused travel funds may only be applied toward the purchase of future travel for the individual named on the ticket. Any changes to this itinerary may result in a fare increase. Failure to cancel reservations for a Wanna Get Away fare segment at least 10 minutes prior to travel will result in the forfeiture of all remaining unused funds.

- If you do not plan to travel on your flight: In accordance with Southwest's No Show Policy, you must notify Southwest at least 10 minutes prior to your flight's scheduled departure if you do not plan to travel on the flight. If not, Southwest will cancel your reservation and all funds will be forfeited.

What you need to know to travel:

- Don't forget to check in for your flight(s) 24 hours before your trip on southwest.com or your mobile device. This will secure your boarding position on your flights.
- Southwest Airlines does not have assigned seats, so you can choose your seat when you board the plane. You will be assigned a boarding position based on your checkin time. The earlier you check in, within 24 hours of your flight, the earlier you get to board.
- WiFi, TV, and related services and amenities may vary and are subject to change based on assigned aircraft. Learn more.

Remember to be in the gate area on time and ready to board:

- 30 minutes prior to scheduled departure time: We may begin boarding as early as 30 minutes prior to your flight's scheduled departure time. We encourage all passengers to plan to arrive in the gate area no later than this time.
- 10 minutes prior to scheduled departure time: All passengers must obtain their boarding passes and be in the gate area available for boarding at least 10 minutes prior to your flight's scheduled departure time. If not, Southwest may cancel your reserved space and you will not be eligible for denied boarding compensation.
- If you do not plan to travel on your flight: In accordance with Southwest's No Show Policy, you must notify Southwest at least 10 minutes prior to your flight's scheduled departure if you do not plan to travel on the flight. If not, Southwest will cancel your reservation and all funds will be forfeited.

Josh--here's your flight itinerary. We have already book your room for one night (Sunday night) at the Omni in Corpus where all of us are staying. You arrive in Houston almost the same time as Victoria and me and we are also flying Delta so this should work out fine. I spoke to Chad and he knows you're traveling with us on the drive from Houston to Corpus. Gerry

PART III

Cases In Which J. Gerald Hebert Has Served As Legal Counsel To A Party or An Amicus Curiae on Behalf of the Campaign Legal Center

(2004 to the present)

Listed below are cases in which I have appeared as legal counsel for a party or for an amicus curiae in campaign finance cases, Voting Rights Act cases, or other election law cases at the Campaign Legal Center, a non-profit, non-partisan organization in Washington, DC.

Federal Litigation

1. Campaign Finance and Ethics Cases

CITIZENS UNITED v. FEC*, 558 U.S. 310 (2010) (U.S. Supreme Court). Citizens United filed suit to challenge the federal “electioneering communications” corporate funding restriction and disclosure requirements as applied to its film entitled Hillary: The Movie and its advertisements promoting the film. On July 18, 2008, a three-judge panel upheld the federal law. On January 21, 2010, the Supreme Court struck down the 60-year-old federal restriction on corporate expenditures in candidate elections, and overturned Austin v. Michigan Chamber of Commerce (1990) and part of McConnell v. FEC (2003). In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed one amici brief with the district court and two amici briefs with the Supreme Court on behalf of campaign finance reform groups.

WISCONSIN RIGHT TO LIFE v. FEC*, 551 U.S. 449 (2007) (US Supreme Court) and No. 04-1260 (DBS, RWR, RJL)(D.D.C.)(3-judge court). Wisconsin Right to Life (WRTL) challenged provisions of BCRA which prohibited it from making certain election communications during and prior to the 2004 elections. The three-judge court rejected WRTL’s challenge and the Supreme Court reversed and struck down the provisions. I served as legal counsel for the Campaign Legal Center, Senator John McCain, and Representatives Christopher Shays and Martin Meehan in the case as amici curiae defending the statute and supporting defendant FEC.

MCCOMISH v. BENNETT*, 572 U.S. 185 (2014) (U.S. Supreme Court). This was a constitutional challenge to the “matching funds trigger provisions” of the Arizona Citizens Clean Elections Act, which provided participating candidates with additional funds if non-participating opponents or outside groups spend above the statutory threshold. In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed an amici brief in the Supreme Court on behalf of the Legal Center and seven other public interest groups to defend the Arizona law. In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I also filed an amici brief with the district court in 2009.

McCUTCHEON v. FEC*, 572 U.S. 185 (2014). This challenge to federal aggregate contribution limits was filed by plaintiffs Shaun McCutcheon and the Republican National Committee (RNC). Plaintiffs in McCutcheon v. FEC challenge both the $70,800 aggregate limit on contributions to non-candidate committees and the $46,200 aggregate limit on contributions to candidate committees in a two-year election cycle. The three-judge district court rejected the challenge, but the U.S. Supreme Court has noted probable jurisdiction. In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed an amici brief in the district court and the Supreme Court defending the aggregate limits. The Supreme Court brief was filed on behalf of nine nonprofit organizations, including AARP, the League of Women Voters of the United States, Common Cause, CREW, and Public Campaign, among others.

DAVIS V. FEC*, 554 U.S. 724 (2008) (Supreme Court). This was a federal court challenge to the Millionaire's Amendment of the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act of 2002. Under the Millionaire's Amendment, when a wealthy self-financed candidate spent in excess of a specified threshold of personal funds, the Amendment provided for an increase in contribution limits and an elimination of coordinated party spending limits for such candidate's non-wealthy opponent. The Amendment also imposed additional disclosure requirements on the self-financing wealthy candidate. The Supreme Court invalidated all of these provisions. I served as legal counsel to amici supporting these amendments in the U.S. Supreme Court.

SHAYS v. FEC, No. 04-5352 (D.C.Cir.) (Shays I). This was an appeal from a ruling of the D.D.C. (Kollar-Kotelly, J.) striking down regulations promulgated by the FEC to implement the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act (BCRA). I served as legal counsel to United States Senators John McCain and Russell Feingold who appeared in the case as amici curiae and filed a brief supporting Appellees Shays and Meehan.

SHAYS v. FEC (527 Suit), No. 1:04-cv-01597-EGS (D.D.C.) (Sullivan, J.) (Shays II). This lawsuit challenged the failure of the FEC to promulgate effective regulations that would apply to 527 groups and set forth when they must register as political committees. I served as legal counsel to United States Senators John McCain and Russell Feingold who appeared in the case as amici curiae.

LAIR V. MOTL*, 873 F. 3d 1170 (9th Cir. 2017). This case involved a First Amendment challenge to Montana's contribution limits. In this case, I filed a brief in the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals on behalf of the Campaign Legal Center, Common Cause, Justice at Stake and the League of Women Voters on behalf of Montana arguing that the limits were justified by a compelling state interest and that such limits were especially important in judicial elections.

NC RIGHT TO LIFE v. LEAKE, No. 5:99-CV-798-BO(3). This case involves a constitutional challenge to several North Carolina campaign finance laws. I represent the Campaign Legal Center in the case, which filed a brief as amicus curiae arguing that North Carolina's limits on contributions to independent expenditure political committees are constitutional.

VOTERS EDUCATION COMMITTEE v. WASHINGTON PUBLIC DISCLOSURE COMMISSION, No. 04-2-23551-1SEA (King County Superior Court). Suit alleges that certain ads aimed at a state Attorney General candidate are not express advocacy, but rather are “issue advocacy” and protected “political speech”. I represent the Campaign Legal Center in the case, which filed a brief as amicus curiae arguing that the state law at issue does not violate the free speech rights of plaintiff 527 corporations by requiring them to register as a political organization and file reports of their contributions and expenditures.

EMILY’S LIST v. FEC, No. 1:05cv00049 (D.D.C.). EMILY’s List challenged a new rule adopted by the FEC late last summer that requires a federal committee to use at least 50 percent federal funds to pay for generic voter mobilization drives and other activities that affect both federal and nonfederal elections, along with a rule that clarified the definition of the term “contribution.” I represented Senators John McCain and Russell Feingold, Representatives Christopher Shays and Martin Meehan, and the Campaign Legal Center which appeared as amici curiae in the case and filed a brief opposing EMILY’s List’s motion for a preliminary injunction.

CHRISTIAN CIVIC LEAGUE OF MAINE v. FEC, No. CV06-0614 (three-judge court) (D.D.C.). The Christian Civic League of Maine has challenged provisions of BCRA which prohibited it from making certain election communications during and prior to the 2006 elections in Maine. The three-judge court denied the Christian Civic League’s motion for preliminary injunction and the case is on appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court. I served as co-counsel for the defendant intervenors in the case: U.S. Senators John McCain and Russ Feingold, and Representatives Christopher Shays, Martin Meehan, and Tom Allen supporting the defendant FEC.

DELAWARE STRONG FAMILIES V. DENN, 793 F. 3d 304 (2015)(3rd Cir.). This case was a constitutional challenge to the State of Delaware’s electioneering communications disclosure requirements. CLC was co-counsel to the State of Delaware in the case and defended the law. The United States Court of Appeals for the Third Circuit held that the law’s disclosure requirements were sufficiently tailored to Delaware’s asserted interest in an “informed electorate.”

UNITED STATES v. VALDES, No. 03-3066 (DC Cir.) I filed an amicus brief in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia on behalf of the Campaign Legal Center supporting the defendant United States in this appeal, which involved an interpretation and application of the federal anti-gratuities statute.

CAO AND RNC v. FEC, No. 10-30146 (5th Cir.), cert. denied No. 10-776 (U.S. Sup. Ct.) In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed an amicus brief on April 19, 2010 with the en banc Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals to defend the constitutionality of the party coordinated spending limits. On September 10, 2010, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit upheld several provisions of the Federal Election Campaign Act (the Act) relating to political parties’ contribution limits to federal candidates and coordinated expenditure limits.

GREEN PARTY OF CONNECTICUT V. LENGE, Nos. 09-0599, 09-0609 (2d Cir.), cert. petition No. 10-795 (U.S. Sup. Ct.) In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I served as co-counsel to the defendant-intervenors in the Supreme Court opposing the petition for certiorari, a case that challenged the constitutionality of Connecticut's public financing system and its statutory ban on contributions from lobbyists, state contractors and members of their immediate families and their solicitation of contributions.

U.S. v. O'DONNELL*, No. 09-50296 (9th Cir.), cert. petition No. 10-1099 (U.S. Sup. Ct.) This case involved whether federal law “prohibits straw donor contributions, in which a defendant solicits others to donate to a candidate for federal office in their own names and furnishes the money for the gift either through an advance or a prearranged reimbursement. CLC, with D21, filed an amici brief with the Ninth Circuit, urging the Court to correct the erroneous interpretation given to the federal law provision by the district court.

U.S. v. DANIELCZYK*, No. 11-cr-00085 (E.D. Va.), No. 11-4667 (4th Cir.) This criminal case concerned a number of alleged campaign finance violations, including that the defendants illegally directed corporate contributions to Hillary Clinton's 2008 Presidential campaign. In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed an amici brief in the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit on the side of the United States.

KOERBER v. FEC*, No. 2:08-cv-00039 (E.D.N.C.) In September 2008, the Committee for Truth in Politics challenged the constitutionality of the federal disclosure requirements for “electioneering communications,” and the FEC's policy for determining federal “political committee” status. The CLC, with D21, filed amici briefs defending the law on October 14, 2008 with the district court, and on April 24, 2009 with the Fourth Circuit.

THE REAL TRUTH ABOUT OBAMA, INC. (RTAO) v. FEC*, No. 08-cv-00483 (E.D. Va.), No. 11-1760 (4th Cir.) RTAO filed suit in the U.S. District Court for the Eastern District of Virginia to enjoin a number of FEC regulations governing when independent groups must register as federal political committees and comply with the applicable federal restrictions and disclosure requirements. The CLC, with D21, filed an amici brief on October 27, 2011 to defend the FEC rules with the Fourth Circuit following the remand of the case from the Supreme Court. The CLC previously filed amici briefs in this case in the district court and the Fourth Circuit on August 14, 2008, October 28, 2008 and October 17, 2010.

VAN HOLLEN v. FEC*, No. 11-cv-00766 (D.D.C.) On April 21, 2011, Representative Chris Van Hollen (D-MD) filed a lawsuit against the FEC to challenge a 2007 FEC regulation that narrowed the scope of federal disclosure requirements connected to electioneering communications. In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center (CLC), I was one of the attorneys representing Rep. Van Hollen as CLC is part of Van Hollen's pro bono legal team. The case remains pending.

Ct.) In March 2010, plaintiffs filed suit to challenge Montana's corporate expenditure restriction, M.C.A. § 13-35-227, on grounds that it was unconstitutional under Citizens United v. FEC. In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed an amici brief in support of itself and 13 other public interest groups on May 18, 2012, urging the U.S. Supreme Court to deny certiorari, or if it grants certiorari, to grant plenary review.

WAGNER v. FEC, No. 11-cv-1841 (D.D.C.) On October 19, 2011, plaintiffs filed a complaint with the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia to challenge the constitutionality of the federal governmental contractor contribution ban, 2 U.S.C. § 441c, as applied to individuals who have personal services contracts with federal agencies. In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed an amicus brief in the district court supporting the contractor contribution ban.

RNC v. FEC, No. 1:08-cv-01953-RJL-RMC (D.D.C.) (three-judge court). On November 13, 2008, the RNC filed suit in federal district court to challenge BCRA's "soft money" restrictions that bar the national parties from raising or spending soft money and prohibit state parties from using soft money for activities that affect federal elections, such as voter registration or GOTV drives. On March 9, 2009, the Legal Center filed an amici brief on behalf of former Representatives Shays and Meehan and Senators McCain and Feingold to defend the "soft money" provisions. On June 29, 2010, the Supreme Court summarily affirmed the decision of a three-judge panel to dismiss the RNC's as-applied challenge to the soft money restrictions of the Bipartisan Campaign Reform Act (BCRA).

SPEECHNOW.ORG v. FEC (D.C. Cir.) 599 F.3d 686, 694 (D.C. Cir. 2010) (en banc). In February 2008, SpeechNow.org filed suit and requested a preliminary injunction to enjoin the federal contribution limits and disclosure requirements as applied to so-called "independent expenditure committees." The DC Circuit struck down the contribution limits but upheld the disclosure requirements. The Legal Center filed two amici briefs with the D.C. Circuit in 2009 to support the constitutionality of the federal contribution limits as applied to a political committee making only independent expenditures.

WASHINGTON v. WASHINGTON EDUCATION ASSOCIATION, No. 05-1657 (U.S. Supreme Court). In this case, CLC filed a brief as amicus curiae urging the U.S. Supreme Court to grant a petition for certiorari filed by the State of Washington to review a decision by the Supreme Court of Washington that invalidated a state law restricting the election-related use of nonmember agency shop fees on the ground that the "opt-in" requirement violated the First Amendment.

HISPANIC LEADERSHIP FUND v. FEC, No. 1:12cv893 (E.D. VA.). Plaintiffs sought to air television advertisements criticizing President Obama without complying with "electioneering communication" disclosure requirements, which include donor disclosure. The ads proposed by HLF would not have mentioned President Obama by name and instead would use the terms "the White House" and "the Administration" and audio recordings of the President's voice. In an attempt to evade the electioneering communication disclosure requirements, HLF argued that its ads do not refer to a clearly identified candidate, and that the disclosure provisions are unconstitutional. The District Court denied an injunction and rejected the constitutional challenge. In my capacity as Director of Litigation for the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed an amicus brief in 2012 supporting the FEC and defending the challenged provisions.

VAN HOLLEN v. IRS, No. 13-1276 (D.D.C.) (JDB), this lawsuit was filed on August 23, 2013, and challenged the failure of the IRS to conduct a rulemaking proceeding to adopt new rules to properly implement the tax law’s eligibility requirements for tax-exempt status as a 501(c)(4) “social welfare” organization. I served as co-counsel to the plaintiff in my capacity as Director of Litigation for the Campaign Legal Center. The case was recently dismissed voluntarily based on the IRS’s announcement that it is undertaking a rulemaking proceeding to address the problems arising from campaign activities by 501(c)(4) groups.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF MANUFACTURERS v. TAYLOR, No. 08-5085 (D.C. Court of Appeals). In this case, CLC filed an amici curiae brief with other non-profit organizations urging affirmance of a district court decision that dismissed a facial and an as-applied challenge to the constitutionality of lobbying disclosure provisions of the Honest Leadership and Open Government Act (“HLOGA”). The court of appeals affirmed.

ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN PHYSICIANS & SURGEONS v. BREWER, No. 05-15630 (9th Cir. 2005). In this case, CLC filed a brief in the Ninth Circuit as amicus curiae urging affirmance of a district court decision upholding provisions of Arizona public financing law. The court of appeals affirmed.

EVENWEL V. ABBOTT, 578 U.S. __ (2016) This case involved a challenge under the U.S. Constitution to the Census Bureau’s method of conducting the census. The challengers urged the Court to require that the Census Bureau use citizenship voting age population or registered voter data. In my capacity as Director of Litigation for CLC, I represented former Directors of the Census Bureau who filed an amici curiae brief in the Supreme Court, urging the Court to reject the plaintiffs’ challenge.

COOPER V. HARRIS, 581 U.S. __ (2017) This case involved a challenge to North Carolina’s congressional districts, alleging that they were racially gerrymandered in violation of the U.S. Constitution. The three-judge court found that the State of NC had used race as the predominant factor in drawing district lines without a compelling reason for doing so. The Supreme Court affirmed. CLC submitted an amici curiae brief in the U.S. Supreme Court on behalf of itself, the League of Women Voters, the Voting Rights Institute, the Racial Justice Project at New York Law School, the National Council of Jewish Women and the National Association of Social Workers supporting the challengers (appellees).

BARTLETT v. STRICKLAND, 556 U.S. 1 (2009). In this case, I filed an amicus curiae brief on behalf of the Campaign Legal Center urging the Court to hold that minority group plaintiffs in voting rights cases may bring cases under Section 2 even when their group constitutes less than 50% of a proposed district's population. The Court held otherwise.

VEASEY v. PERRY, No. 13-139 (NGR) (S.D. TX). This case is a challenge to the Texas photo ID law, S.B. 14, brought under the Voting Rights Act and various provisions of the Constitution. The trial court ruled SB 14 was unlawful. The Fifth Circuit affirmed and the en banc Fifth Circuit also affirmed.

WHITFORD v. GILL, No. 3:15-cv-00421 (W.D. Wis.). This is a pending partisan gerrymandering challenge under the U.S. Constitution to the redistricting plan for the Wisconsin General Assembly. A judgment in favor of plaintiffs was handed down in 2016. The U.S. Supreme Court vacated that ruling and remanded the case for further proceedings. The case remains pending before a three-judge district court.

WITTMAN V. PERSONHUBALLAH, 578 U.S. (2016). In this racial gerrymandering case involving congressional districts in Virginia, the CLC submitted an amici curiae brief in the U.S. Supreme Court on behalf of itself, the League of Women Voters, the Voting Rights Institute and the National Council of Jewish Women.

NEW YORK STATE BOARD OF ELECTIONS v. TORRES, 552 U.S. 196 (2008). Under New York's Constitution, State Supreme Court Justices are elected in each of the State's judicial districts. For nearly a century, New York's election law required parties to select their nominees by delegates at a convention. To run for delegate, a person must submit a 500-signature petition. Convention's nominees appear automatically on the general-election ballot. Plaintiffs challenged this system under the First Amendment. The Supreme Court rejected the challenge. I filed an amici curiae brief urging that the challenge be rejected on behalf of Thomas Mann, Norman Ornstein, the Reform Institute, and the Campaign Legal Center.

LEWIS V. STATE OF ALABAMA, No. 17-11009 (11th Cir.)(2018). In this case, a district court in Alabama had held that the Voting Rights Act did not authorize a private right of action or abrogate state sovereign immunity. CLC served as co-counsel to amici curiae NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc. and the Campaign Legal Center, submitting a brief in the Eleventh Circuit Court of Appeals urging a reversal of the lower court decision. The brief addressed two issues: sovereign immunity and whether private plaintiffs have standing to sue under Section 2 of the Voting Rights Act. The court of appeals reversed the trial court, finding that: 1) plaintiffs have standing to assert their claims against the attorney general, and the Eleventh Amendment provides no shield; and 2) Congress unequivocally expressed its intent to abrogate the states' Eleventh Amendment immunity through § 2 of the Voting Rights Act.

HOLLOWAY v. CITY OF VIRGINIA BEACH, VIRGINIA, 2:18cv69 (E.D. VA). This case is a pending challenge under the Voting Rights Act to the method of electing the Virginia Beach City Council.

STATE/MUNICIPAL LAW LITIGATION

3. State Disclosure Cases

DOE v. REED, No. 09-559 (U.S. Sup. Ct.), on remand No. 3:09-cv-05456 (W.D. Wa.), on appeal No. 11-35854 (9th Cir.) Plaintiffs filed suit to halt Washington State from making petitions connected to a state ballot measure available in response to requests made under the state Public Records Act. In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed an amicus brief on March 28, 2012 with the Ninth Circuit, urging the court to reject the plaintiffs' as-applied challenge and arguing that the narrow exemption to disclosure for harassment set forth in Buckley v. Valeo was not warranted in this case.

The Texas Democratic Party filed an action seeking damages and declaratory and injunctive relief in connection to several violations of state campaign finance law allegedly committed by the King Street Patriots. In response to the suit, the King Street Patriots filed a counterclaim challenging numerous provisions of Texas campaign finance law, including the state corporate contribution restriction, and the disclosure and organizational requirements applicable to political committees and related statutory definitions. In my capacity as Director of Litigation at the non-profit, non-partisan Campaign Legal Center, I filed in September 2011 an amicus brief to oppose the counterclaim and to defend the constitutionality of Texas’ campaign finance laws.

NATIONAL ORGANIZATION FOR MARRIAGE v. BROWNING, This was a constitutional challenge to certain provisions of Florida law relating to electioneering communications and disclosure, alleging that the provisions were overbroad and vague. In June 2007, two political committees filed a challenge in the U.S. District Court for the Northern District of California to the constitutionality of San Francisco’s limit on contributions to political committees that make only independent expenditures in City elections. On August 27, 2007, the CLC filed an amici brief on behalf of itself and four other nonprofit political reform organizations supporting the constitutionality of the San Francisco contribution limits.

MINNESOTA CONCERNED CITIZENS FOR LIFE (MCCL) v. SWANSON, 10-cv-2938 (D. Minn.), on appeal No. 10-3126 (8th Cir.) MCCL challenged multiple provisions of Minnesota’s campaign finance law pertaining to the regulation of corporations. On December 22, 2010, the CLC, with D21, filed an amici brief to defend Minnesota’s disclosure law and its restrictions on corporate contributions.

THALHEIMER v. CITY OF SAN DIEGO, No. 10-55322 (9th Cir.) In December 2009, plaintiffs filed a constitutional challenge to several provisions of San Diego’s campaign finance

The Supreme Court, however, affirmed.

Ethics/Public Corruption

GIL RAMIREZ GROUP v. HOUSTON INDEPENDENT SCHOOL DISTRICT, CIVIL ACTION 4:10-CV-04872 (S.D. Texas). In early 2016, CLC joined in a lawsuit alleging widespread corruption in the awarding of contracts by the Houston Independent School District (HISD). The Legal Center joined the legal team representing a Houston construction contractor, the Gil Ramirez Group, who was locked out of the school district’s construction contracts after refusing to participate in the Board of Trustees’ widespread “pay-to-play” scheme. Plaintiffs were awarded around $5,000,000 in damages. On March 15, 2019, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Fifth Circuit affirmed that judgment.
